Scholarship opportunity

The ICC Moot Court Competition proudly announces that the International Bar Association (IBA) will offer two scholarships for teams participating in the ICC Moot Court Competition.

The scholarship covers the participation fee in the Competition, flight tickets for 5 members and accommodation in a shared apartment for 5 members. Other costs (such as visa costs, travel insurance, and per diem) might be covered as well, provided that the budget allows for it. In order to receive the scholarship, the following criteria needs to be fulfilled:

- The team is from a low-income country as defined by World Bank rankings;
- The university or jurisdiction has never been represented in previous ICC Moot Court Competitions;
- The team includes at least one female speaker;
- The team must provide a short motivation (one page) letter providing the reasons the team would like to participate in the competition and the impact it will have on their future development and how they will use the opportunity to promote the principles of the competition to their university peers – evidence of activities will be required;
- The team has the full support of the university to participate in the Competition;
- The team must submit a registration form together with their application for a scholarship;
- The university needs to provide a letter of commitment to participate in the Competition signed by the Dean. If the team is to cancel their participation and not travel to The Hague all costs will be invoiced to the university.

Please apply for the scholarship by sending all documents required, including the registration form, to iccmcc@law.leidenuniv.nl before 1 November 2018.
